

DBE

Ceiling mounting frame for installation in suspended ceilings

The ceiling installation frame consists of four precisely fitting frame parts and is specially designed for air curtains housing type U. It is flexibly positioned on site at the height of the suspended ceiling on the device and then securely screwed to the air curtain.

The design allows for clean integration into suspended ceilings and ensures a visually appealing overall appearance while providing a secure hold.

