

SBW

Mounting bracket for ceiling installation

The mounting brackets enable the air curtain to be mounted directly on the ceiling – ideal for situations where suspension with threaded rods is not possible.

Depending on the housing type and length of the air curtain, the brackets can be attached to either the short or long side of the unit. The solution is compact, easy to install and ensures stable installation even in confined spaces.